University Housing

University Housing strives to create a community. More than just a place to sleep, residence halls at the University of Arkansas provide space to live, learn and develop lifelong friendships. Consider being part of a Living Learning Community (LLC), a small group of students who live together, share an interest and have access to special programs designed for the LLC.

For more information about living on campus, visit housing.uark.edu.

Campus Dining

The U of A offers a variety of meal plans from Campus Dining with a mix of dietary options prepared by skilled chefs and dedicated staff. Stop by the "all-you-care-to-eat" dining halls or the food court in the Arkansas Union. Visit one of the many restaurants on campus, or grab a quick snack at one of the several campus convenience stores or coffee shops.

For more information about dining on campus, visit housing.uark.edu/dining.

Student Success

Student Success at the U of A provides outreach, programs and resources to help students with academic success, such as tutoring, writing studio, supplemental instruction and peer academic coaching. The Career Development Center helps U of A students discover their interests, values and skills, and prepares them to start a career after graduation.

For more information visit success.uark.edu.

University Recreation

The four-story Health, Physical Education and Recreation building, a part of University Recreation (UREC), offers students access to an Olympic-sized swimming pool, an indoor track, workout and weight room, climbing walls, gymnasiums, outdoor rental equipment and much more. UREC also facilitates club sport teams that compete against other collegiate club teams. Students can also sign up for university-led outdoor trips ranging from day hikes to week-long backpacking trips to the Grand Canyon.

For more information about club sports and recreation on campus, visit urec.uark.edu.

Senior Induction

A new tradition that started in 2019, students celebrate their induction into the Honors College Senior Common Room with a new coat of arms.

The H

The Honors Student Lounge is the perfect place to relax, study and warm up by the fireplace on chilly days. A weekly "Recess at the H" offers refreshments and a chance to connect with friends and Honors College staff.

Honors College

The University of Arkansas Honors College brings together top students and professors to share transformative learning experiences. Being part of the Honors College will allow you to:

- Participate in honors courses on interdisciplinary, cutting-edge topics
- Study abroad at sites around the globe
- Conduct hands-on research with a faculty member
- Engage with local and global communities through service learning
- Serve as a leader on campus and beyond
- Make lifelong friends in the honors community

Honors College students are encouraged to apply for competitive grants to support research, service learning, internships and study abroad. Each year, the Honors College awards more than $1 million in student grants and up to 90 fellowships that provide $80,000 over four years.

New Freshman Honors College Requirements

The U of A Honors College offers options for admission to incoming freshman students as well as current U of A students.

If you don't meet the requirements for honors when you enter the U of A, you may be eligible to join as a current student once you establish a strong academic record at the university. You should consult the honors program director in your academic college for specific information on honors eligibility requirements.

For more information visit honorscollege.uark.edu/apply.

Study Abroad

Learning extends beyond the classroom at the University of Arkansas. Students interview Tibetan refugees in India, study art and economics at the University's Rome Center, engage in community development in Belize, Mozambique and Vietnam and make lasting connections at partner universities all over the world. For more information, visit studyabroad.uark.edu.

Who is eligible to study abroad?

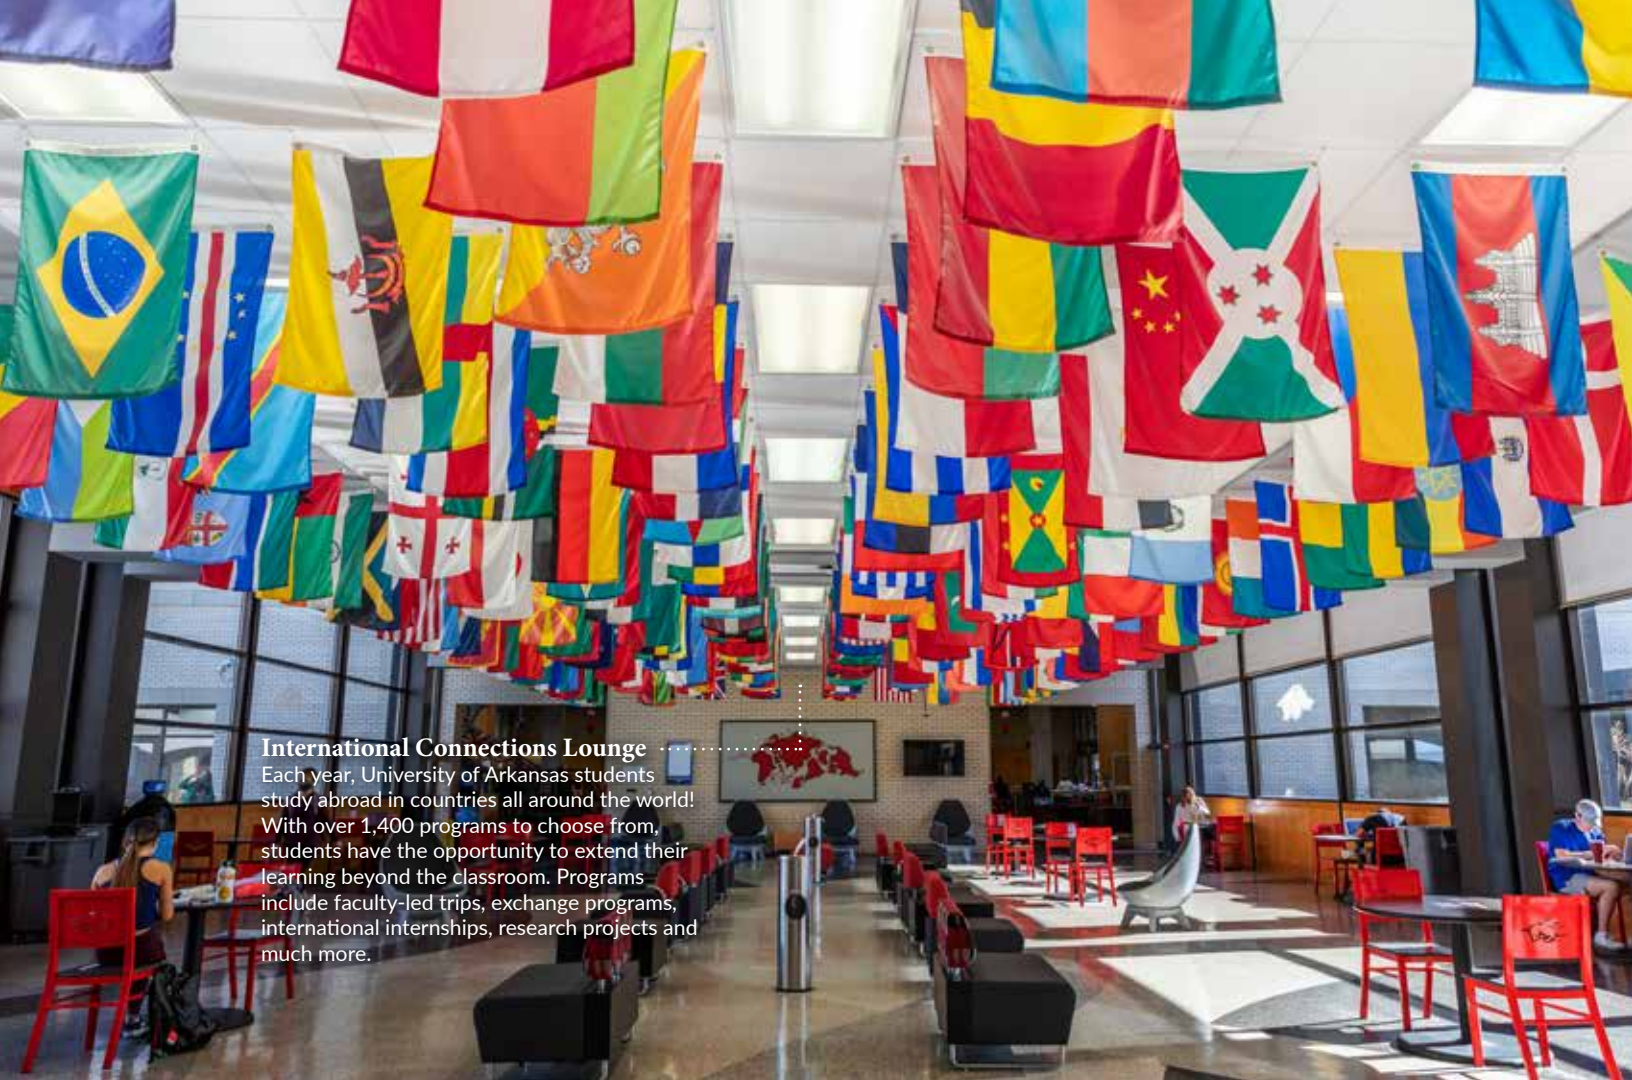

University of Arkansas students who are in good academic standing and who have completed at least 24 credit hours with the U of A are eligible to look into study abroad. Every study abroad program could have its own requirements beyond these basics, so check with the program application for more on the specific expectations for your program.

How do I fund my study abroad?

There are many ways to fund your study abroad, including scholarships and aid that you already have, as well as study abroad grants through individual colleges, academic departments and resources outside the university.

International Connections Lounge

Each year, University of Arkansas students study abroad in countries all around the world! With over 1,400 programs to choose from, students have the opportunity to extend their learning beyond the classroom. Programs include faculty-led trips, exchange programs, international internships, research projects and much more.

The City of Fayetteville, Arkansas

The U of A adjoins Fayetteville's downtown district with a variety of dining and entertainment venues along Dickson Street within easy walking distance.

Fayetteville

Fayetteville is consistently ranked among the country's finest college towns, and the surrounding Northwest Arkansas region is considered one of the best places to live in the U.S. You'll find a number of attractions that will contribute to an enriching college experience or simply enhance a weekend visit.

Fayetteville's downtown district offers a variety of restaurants, boutiques and entertainment venues unique to the area. Stop by the seasonal Fayetteville Farmers Market, catch a show at the Walton Arts Center or TheatreSquared or check out Fayetteville's annual Roots Festival!

Nature enthusiasts can enjoy some of the nation's best outdoor amenities with spectacular hiking trails just minutes away from campus. Devil's Den State Park and Beaver Lake are only 30 minutes away, or stay local and enjoy the Razorback Greenway. Fayetteville's Botanical Garden of the Ozarks is another close-to-campus option.

For more information, visit experiencefayetteville.com.

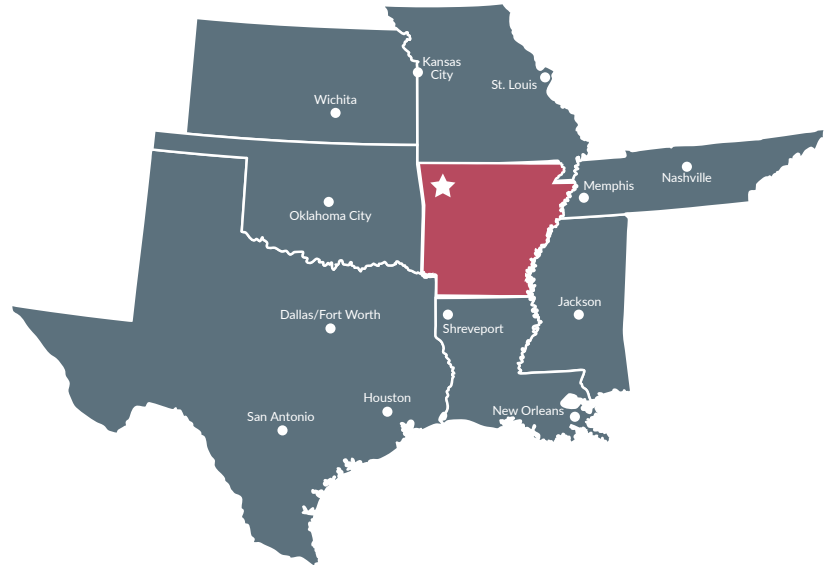

Northwest Arkansas

Fayetteville is nestled in the Northwest Arkansas metroplex. The area is home to some of the biggest names in business, healthcare and non-profit industries, which provide unparalleled career and internship opportunities for U of A students. The Northwest Arkansas region consistently ranks among the best places to live, according to U.S. News & World Report.

Pinnacle Hills Promenade in Rogers offers the region's newest, open-air shopping experience with many of the nation's most popular shops and eateries. The Razorback Greenway is a 37.5-mile-long paved bicycle trail through rolling forest and pasture that connects Fayetteville to Bentonville while passing numerous museums, parks and retail facilities. Be sure to explore Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, a world-class museum featuring collections that include several works considered masterpieces. Crystal Bridges regularly hosts traveling exhibitions, offers miles of wilderness trails and a unique dining experience. And if that's not enough, admission is free.

For more information, visit findingnwa.com.

Home of the Razorbacks

The University of Arkansas is home to one of the most successful intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation. With 19 varsity sports programs, the Razorbacks consistently rank among the best in the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and nationally.

In 2021-22, Arkansas won eight SEC championships and recorded nine top-10 NCAA finishes to earn a program-best seventh place finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup, a competition that tracks the most successful athletics programs in the country.

The Arkansas Razorbacks don't just represent the University of Arkansas – they are the pride of the entire state. There is nothing like the experience of 'Calling the Hogs' with thousands of your closest friends. The Hog Call is one of the most unique and recognizable chants in all of sports. And it's loud – really loud.

The U of A also hosts a large variety of club and intramural sports, which are some of the most popular student activities. Over 3,000 students each year participate in various organized sports both on campus and against intercollegiate teams.

Financial Assistance

- 1 Complete the scholarship application, no later than November 15 for priority scholarship consideration. ACT or SAT scores are required for scholarship and fellowship consideration.
- 2 Search for private scholarships through local businesses, civic groups, places of worship and your high school counseling office. Also check websites such as fastweb.com for lists of additional scholarships.
- 3 As the largest provider of student financial aid in the nation, the Department of Education's Federal Student Aid program might be the most worthwhile financial aid program to apply for. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) as soon as possible after October 1 for the greatest consideration. New students should submit the FAFSA no later than December 1 for consideration for Advance Arkansas and other need-based scholarships. If you are a dependent, you will need your parent or guardian's tax information to complete the FAFSA. Fill out the FAFSA online at fafsa.gov using the University of Arkansas code: 001108.
- 4 Review the Student Aid Report (SAR) that will be sent to you after your FAFSA is processed. It will include a federally calculated Expected Family Contribution (EFC) and outline any additional required steps you should complete.
- 5 Receive your award notice from the University of Arkansas, which may include grants, loans and work-study, as well as merit-based awards and scholarships. This notice may not include all awards.

For more information about financial aid, visit finaid.uark.edu.

Scholarships

To be considered for academic scholarships, apply for admission and submit all transcripts and test scores by November 1. Then complete the online scholarship application and submit required supplemental materials by November 15 for priority consideration. Students who miss the November 15 deadline may apply until February 1 for consideration as funds allow. Visit scholarships.uark.edu for more information about scholarships and honors.uark.edu for information about fellowships.

Scholarship Application Supplemental Materials

1 Three Works

Include three works (non-fiction) that you have read during the past year that you have most enjoyed. For each work, write 4-6 sentences that describe what you found about the work to be significant. At least one of the three selections should be a work that was not required for you to read for school. Please note books that were required class reading.

2 Essay

Write a well-developed essay (600 words maximum) on ONE of the following:

- Identify an invention or idea that was developed more than 50 years ago that still has a major effect on the way we live today. Why did you choose this particular invention or idea?
- Identify an artist or innovator in the world today who inspires you. Tell us why.
- What is an important philosophical, academic or creative question you would like to address during your college (and possibly professional) career? Explain.

Note: You must cite sources if you use published or web-based information in your response.

3 Activities and Honors

Describe up to eight activities and up to five academic awards and honors. For activities, you may include academic, athletic or talent competitions, school and community leadership roles, research or creative endeavors, summer academic camps, music or theater involvement, and service projects or work-related endeavors.

4 Academic References

Fellowship applicants also submit names and contact information of two teachers willing to write letters of recommendation.
