UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

At the University of Arkansas, you will find the opportunity and support you need to make the most of your time in college. Learn from faculty who love what they teach. Connect with others who share your passion and interests. Sharpen your skills in internships with some of the nation's top employers. Use your talents to make the world a better place.

You'll find yourself in a town that's consistently named one of the best places to live in America. Northwest Arkansas is home to more than 250 miles of nationally-known mountain biking and hiking trails – some of which run through the middle of campus. Just a short drive away, you and your friends can explore Crystal Bridges Museum of American Art, float the Buffalo National River or enjoy Off-Broadway productions at the Walton Arts Center.

But most of all, what you will find here is a path to pursue your academic and career goals, to prepare for success after graduation, and to imagine what's possible as part of the Razorback community.

Coleman Warren

Nationally Competitive

The Carnegie Foundation recognizes the U of A for its high research activity. Our students frequently win national scholarships supporting their academic and career goals.

Coleman Warren, an honors student in industrial engineering and political science, was named a 2022 Rhodes Scholar and a 2021 Truman Scholar. He aims to address societal inequities after studying comparative social policy at Oxford University.

To learn more about nationally competitive awards, visit awards.uark.edu.

Breanna Kilgore

Student Centered

Study abroad is an important part of the college experience for many students. For Breanna Kilgore, coming to the U of A meant expanding her world both literally and figuratively. An honors biomedical engineering student, she received a Benjamin A. Gilman Scholarship to study global health and public policy in Switzerland.

Learn more about studying abroad at studyabroad.uark.edu.

Anna Mathis

Research University

Anna Mathis, an honors agricultural education, communications and technology student with concentrations in communications and leadership, was named a 2023 Truman Scholar. Mathis intends to study for M.S. degrees in agricultural economics and rural development and hopes to work in rural development in Arkansas.

Learn more about undergraduate research opportunities at honorscollege.uark.edu.

Honors College

The University of Arkansas Honors College unites top students and professors for transformative learning experiences, including:

- Interdisciplinary honors courses
- Global study abroad opportunities
- Hands-on faculty-led research
- Service learning with local and global communities
- Leadership roles on campus and beyond
- Lifelong friendships within the honors community

Honors students can apply for competitive grants supporting research, service learning, internships, and study abroad. Annually, the Honors College awards over 90 freshman fellowships worth up to $80,000 each over four years and offers more than $1.2 million in research and study abroad grants.

Requirements

If you don't meet honors requirements upon entering the U of A, you may become eligible as a current student with a strong academic record. Consult your academic college's honors program director for specific eligibility details. For more information, visit honorscollege.uark.edu.

Student Success

Student Success at the U of A provides outreach, programs and resources to help students with academic success, such as tutoring, writing studio, supplemental instruction, and peer academic coaching. The Office of Career Connections helps U of A students discover their interests, values and skills, and prepares them to start a career after graduation.

For more information, visit success.uark.edu.

Student Success at the CORD

University Recreation

The four-story Health, Physical Education and Recreation building, a part of University Recreation (UREC), offers students access to an Olympic-sized swimming pool, indoor track, workout and weight room, climbing walls, gymnasiums, outdoor rental equipment, and much more. UREC facilitates club sport teams that compete against other collegiate club teams. Students can sign up for university-led outdoor trips ranging from day hikes to week-long backpacking trips to the Grand Canyon.

For more information about club sports and recreation on campus, visit urec.uark.edu.

Fayetteville Traverse Trail

Intramural Sports

Home of the RAZORBACKS®

The University of Arkansas is home to one of the most successful intercollegiate athletics programs in the nation. With 19 varsity sports programs, the Razorbacks consistently rank among the best in the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and nationally.

Razorback student-athletes succeed both on the field and in the classroom. In 2023-24, Arkansas won two NCAA and five SEC championships, recorded nine top-10 national finishes and for the fourth-consecutive year ranked in the top-20 of the Learfield Directors' Cup. In 2023-24, 100% of Razorback student-athletes who completed their athletics eligibility graduated at the University of Arkansas.

The Arkansas Razorbacks don't just represent the University of Arkansas – they are the pride of the entire state. The Hog Call is one of the most unique and recognizable chants in all of sports. And it's loud – really loud. The U of A also hosts a large variety of club and intramural sports, which are some of the most popular student activities. Over 3,000 students each year participate in various organized sports both on campus and against intercollegiate teams.

Applying for Admission

Ready to be a Razorback? Make plans to apply to the University of Arkansas early in your senior year to take advantage of priority scholarship, housing and orientation options.

Admission Process

If you are applying to the University of Arkansas for the fall semester, follow these steps to complete the application process. The priority application deadline is November 1. The final application deadline is August 1.

- 1 Complete an application for admission at apply.uark.edu. Apply by November 1 to take advantage of priority scholarship, housing and orientation options.
- 2 Ask your high school to send your transcript to uofa@uark.edu or by mail to:

Office of Admissions
232 Silas H. Hunt Hall
1 University of Arkansas
Fayetteville, AR 72701

- 3 Send your ACT or SAT scores to the U of A no later than February 1 if you wish to be considered for merit-based scholarships and fellowships. All admitted students must provide ACT, SAT or Next Generation Accuplacer scores by May 1 for placement and enrollment.

Admission Guidelines*

Test Optional

Applicants with a 3.20 high school GPA or higher (4.00 scale) will be reviewed for admission without a test score.

Test Required

Applicants with less than a 3.20 high school GPA should submit ACT, SAT or Next Generation Accuplacer scores at the time of application.

Non-Residents

Out-of-state applicants may be required to meet higher standards, including holistic review, depending on demand.

*Admission guidelines for the Fall 2025 semester. Additional and current admission requirements available at apply.uark.edu.
