Silas Hunt Hall
Home to the Office of Admissions, Silas Hunt Hall also houses Financial Aid, Academic Scholarships, and the Registrar.

Arkansas Union
A one stop shop for students, the Arkansas Union houses restaurants, a technology center, exercise gym, movie theater, hair salon and post office. The student union also hosts campus events, career fairs, and more.

Mullins Library
Mullins Library is the second largest library in the state of Arkansas. The library offers a special collections department, many study rooms, and a general computer lab, which is available to any student on campus.

Greek Theater
The Chi Omega Greek Theatre is a popular place for concerts, pep rallies or simply enjoying the sun between classes. Chi Omega, founded at the U of A in 1895 and now the largest women's fraternity in the nation, donated the theatre in 1930.

Gearhart Hall
Gearhart Hall is home to the Graduate School and International Admissions, as well as the Honors College, which includes study spaces specifically for honors students.

Old Main
Old Main is the oldest building on campus. The U of A's Senior Walk begins on its steps. Old Main’s bells chime throughout the day and play the Alma Mater each evening.

Student Success Center
The Student Success Center will be a one stop resource for students. The SSC will offer personalized academic, financial, and social support for all students at the university.

Bookstore
The U of A bookstore is where students can buy textbooks, technology, and boba tea. The bookstore provides new, used, rental, inclusive access, e-books, and more.

Northwest Quad
Featuring suite style dorms, the Northwest Quads houses the Fulbright Dining Hall, three classrooms, a music room, study rooms, meeting facilities, and more.

Razorback Stadium
Donald W. Reynolds Stadium is the home of Razorback football, with a capacity of nearly 76,000 people. In the fall, students fill the stands to celebrate and cheer on the Hogs.
