A term you will hear when you arrive to campus is “neighborhood”. Halls across campus have been clustered to provide a designated area that shares geographical borders as well as resources such as zoned desks, parking lots, outdoor recreational space, dining options, and even RAs. You will experience events and programming in your hall but also within your neighborhood, allowing you to meet others who live nearby.

Each neighborhood is identified by a symbol, color, and name which points to an important part of Arkansas culture.
