Humility

An introduction to building blocks of student success to help with academic and social confidence.

An introduction to campus partners and resources.

A safe space to ask questions and connect with students, faculty, and staff in a small class setting.

First-Year Seminar Courses

Tutoring

Tutors clarify course content, demonstrate how to solve problems, and provide an individualized experience to students in over 150 university courses through appointments, drop-ins, and Study Halls.

Writing Studio

Writing Studio consultants offer feedback on students' writing at any stage in the writing process and help students improve their academic writing skills.

Academic Coaching

Peer academic coaches help students elevate their academic performance by identifying and developing academic skills and strategies for learning efficiently and effectively.

Supplemental Instruction

For select historically challenging courses, SI offers weekly, collaborative study sessions facilitated by students who have excelled in the course and want to share their expertise.

OTHER CORD RESOURCES

Welcome Desk

Student employees are always ready to help with campus navigation, course enrollment, Blackboard support, and more.

Exploration Coaches

Exploration Coaches offer holistic major exploration support in one centralized location, so students don't have to visit multiple offices to get the guidance they need.

ASAP | 360

Designed for first-generation and Pell eligible students, these programs provide one-on-one staff support and peer mentoring to assist with academic transition, financial planning, social engagement and wellness.
